

MRS. HALL'S CLAIM KNOWN.

Full-Blood Gilman Heirs Say They Are Ready to Meet It.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., March 16.—William Pinkney Hamilton, attorney for the three daughters of Winthrop Gilman, full brother of the late George Francis Gilman, reached Bridgeport today. Proceeding directly to the court-house, he asked for a conference with Probate Judge Nobbs. Mr. Hamilton said that his business was to enter appearance for the three full-blood heirs as representatives and to familiarize himself with the local situation. While Mr. Hamilton declined to say what was the basis of Mrs. Hall's claims to the fortune of the Black Rock estate, he made it plain that the attorneys for the full-bloods know what it is and that they are prepared to meet the issue Monday.

"I have some papers to file," said Mr. Hamilton, "but they will not affect the case materially, and will not be brought out until the hearing Monday."

"It is my intention to go out to Black Rock later in the day, or at least tomorrow, but what I shall do there is not material to the issue as it stands."

Mr. Hamilton came up for the purpose of joining the State of Connecticut in its effort to prove that George Francis Gilman died intestate and that he was at the time of his death a bona fide resident of Bridgeport. It is also the intention of his clients to oppose the selection of Theophilus Gilman or any other representative of the half-bloods as one of the administrators of the estate.

The full-bloods want the entire estate administered under the laws of Connecticut, so that the half-blood kin and Mrs. Helen Blakely Hall may not have a share in the partition of the personal property of the dead testator. Attorney Hamilton does not believe that Mrs. Hall has a tangible claim to anything more than reimbursement for her services for the time she acted as mistress of the Black Rock household and confidential manager for George Gilman.

It is the evident intention of the heirs to represent to fight the claims of the half-blood relatives along with that of Mrs. Hall, and they will undoubtedly urge Judge Nobbs to issue an order of court holding the administrators to be responsible for the estate for all the personal estate of Mr. Gilman wherever it may be found.

If this order is issued it will precipitate the conflict between New York State and the Commonwealth of Connecticut, and the half-blood heirs an opportunity to take the question of residence to the Supreme Court on an appeal from the order.

ALLIGATOR IS M'CURDY'S PRIZE

Insurance Magnate Attacked, Won After Hot Fight.

TAMPA BAY, March 16.—R. A. McCurdy, President of the Mutual Life Assurance Society of New York, has fairly won his title as an alligator hunter. While he did not exactly go out after the game, Mr. McCurdy was equal to the emergency when the creature rose out of the water and attacked his party. Mr. McCurdy, who had been out duck shooting, had only attendants with him. All were in a small boat that was being rowed in a shallow stream.

Suddenly the alligator poked his nose above water and made direct for the boat. As he rose he snapped his jaws, and the attendants, terrified, jumped out of the boat and scrambled ashore.

Mr. McCurdy met the attack and, although almost unable to keep his feet in the boat, so furious was the gator, he fought it back and, picking up his rifle, shot the creature dead.

The alligator will be mounted and sent to Mr. McCurdy's office in New York.

NOT MRS. ELLA F. CONKLING.

Similarity of Names Leads to Embarrassing Publicity.

Owing to a similarity of names, Mrs. Ella F. Conkling, of No. 62 West Seventh street, was confused with a woman whose conduct while living in Mount Vernon a few weeks ago caused much criticism. At the time Mrs. Ella F. Conkling was married to Theodore Conkling and living in this city.

There is no connection between the two women.
